LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE JOURNAL

SIXTY-SECOND SESSION.

FIRST DAY.

Conference Opened—

The Sixty-Second Session of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in the Methodist church in Monticello, Arkansas, at 9:00 A. M., Dec. 1, 1915, with Bishop H. C. Morrison presiding.

Bishop Morrison read and commented on John 2:1-11, after which the Conference sang Hymn 560, and the Bishop led in prayer.

Secretaries—

The roll was called, C. J. Greene was elected secretary, and authorized by action of the Conference, he named the following: S. R. Twitty and Roy Farr, assistant secretaries; S. T. Baugh, statistical secretary; L. C. Beasley, James Rhodes, and C. N. Baker, assistant statistical secretaries; J. L. Hoover, recording secretary; and George Thornburgh, railroad secretary.

Time of Meeting and Adjournment—

Nine A. M. and twelve M. were the hours fixed for the meeting and the adjourning of the Conference.

The Bishop requested that the Conference business session be preceded by a thirty minutes prayer meeting.

Conference Committees—

The presiding elders nominated and the Conference elected the Annual Conference Committees.

Press Correspondent—

P. C. Fletcher was elected Conference reporter.

The Committee on Publishing Conference Minutes made its report and the report was adopted.

Introduced to Conference—

The following were introduced:

Rev. J. F. Tull, pastor of the Baptist Church of Monticello; A. D. Dietrich, District Sunday School Secretary; Dr. H. M. DuBose, Book Editor and Editor of the Review; Rev. F. Shepperson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Monticello; Rev. C. Pope, of the North Arkansas Conference; Rev. Frank Hopkins, of the East Columbia Conference; Rev. D. H. Colquitt, of the North Arkansas Conference; Revs. Theodore Copeland, J. T. J. Fizer, M. N. Waldrip, and E. R. Steele, recent transfers to this Conference; Dr. A. J. Lamar, and Dr. C. S. Wright, representing the Educational Commission and the Southern Methodist University.

Conference—

Dr. DuBose addressed the Conference with regard to his work as editor of the Review.

The Western Methodist
Commission—

The Western Methodist Commission made its report which was referred to the Committee on Publishing Interests. Hearing the report of the Committee on the proposed Conference ownership of the Western Methodist was made the order of the day at 10:30 a. m. Thursday.

Dr. Lamar and Rev. C. S. Wright
Address Conference—

Dr. A. J. Lamar addressed the Conference on the work of the Educational Commission, and Rev. C. S. Wright, Vice President of the Southern Methodist University, addressed the Conference, presenting the proposed amendment to the Charter of the University, with a preamble and resolution attached, which preamble and resolution the Commission asked the Conference to pass as a part of the application for said amendment. He also requested the Conference to elect a trustee subject to the approval of the General Conference Commission.

J. L. Cannon presented a resolution committing the Conference to the action requested by the representative of the Southern Methodist University.

Stonewall Anderson moved as a substitute for the resolution offered by J. L. Cannon that the request of Rev. C. S. Wright together with the proposed amendments to the Charter of the Southern Methodist University with the attached preamble and resolution be referred to the Board of Education.

Bishop Morrison stated that he had ruled that inasmuch as the Educational Commission is the General Conference in miniature; that its action is the action of the General Conference, any adverse criticism or proposed action in an annual Conference which opposed or would obstruct the work of the Commission, was out of order; and that he had in writing the concurrence of the entire college of Bishops in this ruling.

W. M. Hayes was speaking on the substitute motion when the hour of adjournment arrived. The Bishop stated that the motion would be resumed when the Conference convened tomorrow, and that W. M. Hayes would have the floor.

Announcements—

The Committee on Public Worship announced that Dr. DuBose would preach at 3 p. m. and that the Sunday School Anniversary would be held at 7 p. m.

Adjournment—

The Doxology was sung and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by Horace Jewell.

SECOND DAY—THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION.

Opening—

The Conference met at 8:30 a. m., and was led in a thirty minutes devotional service by B. A. Few. At 9 a. m. the business session was opened with Bishop H. C. Morrison in the chair.

Roll Call—

The roll of those who did not answer to their names the first day was called.

The presence of R. B. F. Key, lay delegate from the Arkadelphia District, was noted. J. T. Crenshaw, an alternate from the Monticello District, was seated in place of J. F. Titus. D. B. Niven, an alternate from the Pine Bluff District, was seated in the place of J. M. McCain.

Minutes Read—

The minutes of the previous session were read, corrected and approved.

Transfer—

The Bishop announced the transfer of A. C. Millar from the East Oklahoma Conference.

Continued Discussion—

The motion which was pending when the previous session of the Conference adjourned was resumed. After extending discussion the previous question was moved and the motion carried. The Conference then voted to refer the request of the Educational Commission pertaining to the Southern Methodist University to the Board of Education. Two other papers, bearing on the request of the Commission, were presented by members of the Conference, read and referred to the Board of Education.

Question 22—

Under question 22, "Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?" the following names were called, their characters passed, and they were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations:

C. D. McSwain for the supernumerary relation; D. D. Warlick, J. B. Williams, R. C. Atchley, J. E. Caldwell, W. J. Davis, H. Jewell, E. Garrett, J. L. Johnston, O. H. Keadle, H. D. McKinnon, H. Townsend, J. W. Vantrease, C. O. Steele, C. W. Drake, S. A. Hill, S. W. Rainey, E. F. Wilson, C. C. Godden, E. N. Watson, W. M. Crowson, J. R. Sanders, R. J. Raiford, C. C. Green for the superannuated relation.

Died—

It was announced that J. C. Rhodes and Edgar Seay had died during the year and their names were referred to the Committee on Memoirs.

Introduced—

Dr. J. R. Stewart was introduced, and he addressed the Conference on the Superannuate Endowment Fund.

Communication of Educational Commission—

The report of the Educational Commission signed by its chairman, Bishop Warren A. Candler, was read and referred to the Board of Education.

Order of the Day—

The order of the day having been reached, the Committee on Publishing Interests made its report recommending concurrence in the recommendations of the Western Methodist Commission. A motion was made that the report of the Committee be adopted, and the rest of the morning session was occupied in discussing the motion.

The time was extended that A. C. Millar might finish his discussion.

Public Worship—

The Committee on Public Worship announced that M. N. Waldrip would preach at 3 p. m., and that the educational anniversary would be held at 7 p. m., with Dr. J. H. Reynolds making the principal address.

Adjournment—

The Doxology was sung and the Conference adjourned with the benediction by C. C. Godden.

THIRD DAY—FRIDAY.

The Conference prayer meeting beginning at 8:30 a. m. was led by W. A. Steel. The business session was opened at 9 a. m. with Bishop H. C. Morrison presiding.

Minutes Read—

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Leave of absence was granted to J. S. Utley.

J. H. Hicks, an alternate from the Little Rock District, was seated in place of J. E. Hicks.

Telegrams of Sympathy—

A motion carried that P. C. Fletcher send telegrams of sympathy to J. E. Caldwell and R. H. M. Mills who are extremely sick.

Western Methodist
Commission—

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Publishing Interests recommending concurrence in the recommendation of the Western Methodist Commission, was resumed.

W. P. Whaley offered an amendment to the report of the Western Methodist Commission. J. A. Sage offerred an amendment to the amendment. J. L. Cannon explained that the recommendation of the Western Methodist Commission contained two steps, namely: buying the paper, and a method of securing the money to pay for it, and that he thought that these two recommendations should be voted on separately. He then moved that the Conference purchase the paper. The motion to amend, and the motion to amend the amendment were withdrawn in order that the motion to purchase might be considered.

R. W. McKay moved that everything before the house be referred to a special committee composed of W. P. Whaley, George Thornburg and James Thomas. A motion to lay this motion on the table did not pass.

The motion to refer carried.

The presence of J. O. A. Bush, lay delegate from the Prescott District, was noted.

Treasurer Asks For Information—

Marion S. Monk, Conference Treasurer, stated that he had in hand $171.00, the amount collected for the general claims on the Okolona Circuit in 1914 and temporarily lost. A motion carried that the amount be apportioned to the various claims according to the 1914 statistical reports of the circuit, and marked as a deferred payment.

The Corrigan Case—

Question 18, Who are located this year? was asked. Alonzo Monk, who had moved during the previous session to locate M. B. Corrigan on the ground of secularity, was granted the privilege, by vote of the Conference, to change the form of his motion. He then changed the form of his motion so as to make the ground of his motion include Dr. Corrigan's refusal to go to his appointment last year.

Dr. Corrigan replied to the charges contained in the motion to locate, and several members of the Conference spoke to the motion.

The time for adjournment having been reached, the session was extended until the question before the house be disposed of.

The Bishop read from the Manual of the Discipline the law covering the case.

A motion carried that the vote should be a rising vote.

The vote was 43 in favor of location and 77 opposed to location.

REPORTS OF BOARDS

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference.
Dear Brethren:

In closing this, the first year of our Quadrennium, we desire to express our appreciation of your hearty cooperation. We have made some advance, yet it remains true that our ideals have not been reached.

We have carefully considered the recommendations of the General Board. Dr. Pinson, our General Secretary, was before us in Council. The week of Prayer, January 2-9, 1916, fixed by the General Board, for the purpose of strengthening our home Church and reviving us spiritually, we urge the Pastors to observe. You can order from the publishing house the literature for this week which will be sent without cost, together with the envelopes for the free will offering, which free will offering goes to the emergency fund that the general secretary is endeavoring to raise. We call attention to the discipline of our church and beg to say that it contains the finest possible programme for conducting our Missionary operations.

The Sunday Schools under our discipline are already Missionary Societies and we urge all to set apart one Sunday in each month for a short Missionary Programme under the direction of a Sunday School committee and that as far as possible the offering raised on this Missionary Sunday be sent to the Board as a Special rather than on the regular assessment.

Your Board has fixed January 26th next for a day of Counsel with the Presiding Elders in Little Rock, in order to plan for larger things and more systematic work for the incoming year.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted, which we submit in this report:

Whereas, There is a widespread and ever increasing interest in evangelism, especially personal evangelism; and,

Whereas, Our church law now provides that evangelistic movements be directed by duly constituted Annual Conference Committees on evangelism under the general supervision of Dr. John M. Moore, our Home Mission Secretary;

Therefore, Be it resolved by the Little Rock Annual Conference in regular session assembled—

First—That during the year 1916 a simultaneous evangelistic campaign be conducted throughout the bounds of the entire Conference, beginning the second Sunday in March, and closing on Easter, Sunday, April 23rd.

Second—That during this campaign special emphasis be laid upon the win-one method of reaching men; that as far as practicable Decision Day be observed in all our Sunday Schools, and that protracted services be held in all our churches.

Third—That the Western Methodist be adopted as the official exponent of this campaign in case its editor can give sufficient space for the campaign's vigorous promotion.

Fourth—That the Conference Committee on Evangelism be expected to direct this campaign.

We nominate the following Committee on Evangelism as authorized by paragraph 412 of Discipline, to-wit: B. A. Few, R. W. McKay, James Thomas, Frank Scott, E. R. Steel, P. C. Fletcher, T. D. Scott.

The Board elected Rev. Forney Hutchinson Conference Missionary Secretary and respectfully asks the Bishop to appoint him as such.

The Board has set apart the month of May for an every member campaign for Missions and respectfully urges every pastor to get in their Missionary Assessments to the treasurer as soon as possible and to emphasize this every member month and clear the decks as to Missions by the end of May.

We have the sum off $4000.00 to appropriate to Conference Missions and the appropriations are as follows:

REPORT OF AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference.

Dear Brethren:

We submit to you the following report on the Bible Cause. Brother Colquette, the representative of the A. B. Society, appeared before the board and gave a cheering report of the Society:

We rejoice to report that of the Society's 99 years of service, this year has been the most successful one in the face of many difficulties. The Society has distributed nearly six and a half million volumes of the Word of God, and yet the demands have been much greater than the Society could supply. They bring us the good news that there is a rapidly growing hunger for the Word of God in all lands. But we are grieved to report that for want of funds this great need cannot be fully met. In order that we may aid and strengthen the Society in this world-wide work of giving the Bible to all people, we recommend the following:

First—That to meet the needs in our own territory a Bible depository be made by the Society in the city of Little Rock, Arkansas.

Second—That each pastor see to it that our people get the facts about the work of the Bible cause.

Third—That since our General Conference has fixed the assessment for the Bible cause at 2 cents per member, that the pastors do all in their power to collect this small amount from our membership and thereby swell our contributions to this great cause.

Fourth—That since the Bible Society reaches its centenary May 1916, and since great plans are making for a Centennial Celebration, we beg that our pastors see to it that sometime in May of next year, 1916, suitable services be held in all our Churches and let our people have a fair chance to make an offering to this all important cause.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. CANNON, Chairman,
J. W. BERRY, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference in Session at Monticello, Arkansas.

Dear Brethren:

We your Board of the Church Extension respectfully submit the following report:

We are glad to be able to report an increase in collections this year, to the amount of $657.00. The total amount collected this year amounting to $4327.00 against $3670.00 last year. Even with this increase we were unable to help all who applied and were compelled to reduce the amount asked for in almost every case.

According to the report of the General Board which was before us, the Horace Jewel Loan Fund, consisting of $200.00, and loaned to the Salem Church, July 1st, 1912, of this amount, $100.00 of the capital has been paid and the interest paid to July 1st, 1915. In addition to this we have the Dr. R. N. Ross Loan Fund of $47.75, making a total of $176.75 available for loans.

Mr. John P. Almond, an Architect, of Little Rock, came before the Board and asked the Board to endorse him officially for Church Architect, for Little Rock Conference. On motion his request was referred to the Executive Committee to be acted upon at the mid-year meeting, in joint session with the Executive Committee of North Arkansas Conference. In the meantime, we would advise anyone contemplating building to consult him.

We wish to express our thanks to the old Board for their willingness to help us in making these donations.

We wish to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that the General Board is prepared to furnish all blanks, and much valuable literature free for the asking.

On motion, W. C. Watson was elected delegate with W. D. Sharp alternate, to attend the meeting of the General Board which meets in Louisville, Ky., next May.

We have received $50.00 through Rev. W. P. Whaley from Norphlet Church, on Eldorado Circuit. This sum was appropriated to the church in 1910 and the church was never built, thus the money has been returned to the Board. The total amount collected during the year for the cause of Church Extension was $4327.00, one half of which amount goes to the General Board, leaving only $2164 at our disposal.

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES.

The Board of Lay Activities submits the following report:

We regret to report that no very striking advance has been made in the organization and work of the Laymen the past year. The Conference Lay Leader has visited churches and district conferences wherever possible, and District Lay Leaders have done the same. The need now is, that the Committees authorized by the General Conference shall be organized in the churches. In order that this may be done our Presiding Elders and Pastors must take the lead. The laymen, many of them, are waiting for the way to be pointed out by their clerical superiors to enter on a new and larger service. It is not expected that the preachers shall do all the work, but it must be evident to all that the laymen will not, and in the nature of things cannot organize and enter the field without the leadership, aid and encouragement of the preachers. The laymen only offer their services and then wait for their clerical brethren to open the doors and set them at their task. We would therefore respectfully, but earnestly urge our Presiding Elders and Pastors to select with care Lay Leaders, and that committees are organized in all our charges early in the year.

We cannot too strongly recommend the every member canvass as a financial method, and we pledge our best efforts in securing an offering from every member, every week for every great interest.

We recommend that all District Lay Leaders have a meeting of all church and charge Lay Leaders in their District at an early day to study and plan the work of the year, either as a separate meeting or in connection with the Presiding Elders' District Institutes when practicable.

We respectfully ask the reelection of J. H. Waters as Conference Lay Leader, and bespeak for him the prayers and cooperation of the Conference.

J. H. WATERS, Chairman.

ORPHANAGE BOARD.

Your Methodist Orphanage Board respectfully reports that we are pleased with the wise management of the Orphanage by our present board which reports as follows:

The work of the past year has been very gratifying, both as to its character and extent. We had no death and very little serious sickness.

For several years there has been a gradual but steady growth in the number of children cared for, and this year finds a little increase over the last. At the close of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1914, we had in the Orphanage 34 children, 23 were admitted and 26 placed in homes during the year, leaving in the Home, Oct. 1, 1915, 31 children. We have placed all told, 227. If we had kept them all in the Orphanage, under the old Orphans' Home Plan, we would now have 268. Each year confirms the wisdom of placing children when proper homes can be found for them.

Brother Thornburgh received, during the year, special contributions to the amount of $1,166.45, which was spent on the building and sewerage connection. He has raised a total of $35,001.31, of which approximately $32,000 has been expended on the building and grounds and the remainder for furnishings. Forney Hutchinson and G. H. Kimball were elected trustees to fill vacancies.

G. H. KIMBALL, Secretary.

Your Board is informed further that there is only one salaried officer with the Orphanage, and that is the matron, who receives $50.00 per month.

We heartily commend Brother Thornburgh for his work, and are grateful for the large amount of money he has raised.

We urge that every congregation throughout the Conference, observe one Sunday in each year as Orphanage Day, as heretofore provided by Resolution of this Conference.

The assessment assumed by this conference is $2500, which we have distributed to the Districts as follows:

Arkadelphia District .....	$315.00
Camden District .....	380.00
Little Rock District .....	482.00
Monticello District .....	375.00
Fine Bluff District .....	355.00
Prescott District .....	284.00
Texarkana District .....	309.00

Respectfully,

T. O. RORIE, Chairman,

R. A. McCLINTOCK, Secretary.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

To the Bishop and members of the Little Rock Conference:

We your Epworth League Board respectfully submit the following report:

We rejoice to report advance along all lines of the Epworth League work of the year. We have more Leaguers actively at work than ever before in the Little Rock Conference. Much of the credit is due to the enthusiastic meeting of the League Conference held at Hope in June which very wisely re-elected Bro. C. C. Arnold as its President.

We reassert with renewed emphasis the function of the Epworth League as the means of meeting the complex needs of the youth of our Church for healthful recreation, social culture and manifold activities under the safe guards and direction of religion, and for the training of young christians in a life of service and loyalty to the Church.

We heartily commend the Epworth Era to all the members of the League. We also commend the Western Methodist and sincerely thank its Editor for the space given our work in its pages. We recommend and hereby nominate Rev. Clem Baker to be Epworth League Editor, to write Epworth League notes in the Western Methodist for the ensuing year.

In view of the fact that there are still many pastoral charges without Leagues, we authorize our President, Rev. H. F. Buhler, to appoint a representative in each Presiding Elder's District to assist him in the work of organization. Such representative to be charged with the carrying out of our League slogan, "At least one League in each Pastoral charge this year."

We note with pleasure a decided increase in receipts from Anniversary Day, but since only a comparatively few Leagues observed this day this year, we earnestly urge the Pastors in compliance with paragraph 290 of Discipline, to exercise greater diligence along this line.

We heartily commend the action of the League Conference in its continued support of the Cedar Glades Mission and in its additional pledge for the Congo Mission, and urge that every effort possible be put forth to collect every dollar pledged for these purposes. We appreciate the effort to establish an Annual Assembly as initiated by the North Arkansas Conference, and appoint H. F. Buhler and C. C. Arnold to select a third member, and these three to serve as the Little Rock Conference Commission to confer with a like Commission of the North Arkansas Conference looking to the establishment of such an assembly.

We deplore the seeming lack of interest in the work of the Junior League. We commend this not only as a vital department of the League work, but as one of the very best preparations for Senior League work and suggest that Junior Leagues be organized wherever practical.

We nominate the following for membership on the League Board: W. H. Keaton in the place of I. W. Holmes. Morgan McGregor in the place of B. H. Logan; W. T. Menard in the place of M. N. Whaley; R. R. Posey in the place of A. W. Judd.

Finally in answer to the argument that country Leagues are impossible we call special attention to the fact that the banner League report of the year was made by Vandervoort Circuit.

H. F. BUHLER, Pres.,
C. N. BAKER, Sec.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Dear Brethren: We quote from the last Episcopal Address:

"Methodism in America has 6,000,000 in her Sunday Schools alone, from whom come nearly ninety per cent of her Church Members. In a single branch of the Methodist Church in our land during the last eight years more than 1,400,000 Sunday School scholars have been converted to Christ, and more than $5,000,000 have been contributed by the Sunday Schools to missions and other benevolences. In our own Church we have 1,575,645 Sunday School scholars, an increase of 95,867 during the last year, but we still lack 457,164 in order that our Sunday School enrollment may equal our enrollment of church members. We urge that diligent effort be made at once to fill this gap and that despite our growing membership (with a net gain last year of 36,132) we shall be able to report an equal Sunday School enrollment. This will mean the recovery of the thousands of adolescents who no longer attend, but who so greatly need the fostering care of the teacher as well as the pastor, as well as the addition of thousands of all ages who may thus be brought under the gracious influence of the study of the Holy Scriptures, which may make them wise unto salvation. The new definition of the Sunday School will thus be found in "the whole Church studying the Word of God." Then with a passion for souls on the part of pastors and teachers the annual increase of Church members should reach not less than 100,000. Less than this we dare not rest satisfied to achieve, and that would be less than a five per cent increase in our membership. Mr. Wesley was right when he said: "The future of Methodism depends on what we do for our children." The well being of the child is the measure of the stability of both Church and State as well as of the family."

During the past year the progress of our work as handled by our General Sunday School Board has been satisfactory.

There has been a gain in the circulation of all publications. The uniform publications had a gain of 23,111 and the graded publications, 111,448. The attention of our Conference is directed to the superior help given to the elementary grades by the graded literature. A new magazine, "The Workers Council" may now be had which will be found helpful to our Schools. The magazine will thus be able to devote more space to the lessons. Bishop J. H. McCoy will furnish the setting and application of the lesson. The uniform lessons are to be taken largely from the Acts. We will accordingly advise our teachers to supply themselves with helps for the study of this book.

Special courses on Mission Work in China will be given by direction of the General Sunday School Board and the Board of Missions. We invite careful attention to this important and undeveloped phase of our work.

We note with delight the increasing interest on the part of our Colleges in training our students for better service in the Sunday School.

The increase in the sales of our literature has been over one hundred per cent of the sales six years ago.

While we shall miss the timely help of Dr. H. M. Hamill, we are glad to state that Mr. John W. Shackford has taken his place. A larger number of pastors and teachers have enrolled than heretofore.

The Wesley Bible Class has now enrolled 5,700 classes, numbering 170,000 members. The Social Service for men is being developed. Large gatherings for men are being held by these members. One recent gathering was attended by 1,500 men. Annual Conferences are forming federations of these classes.

Our Children's Day offerings are growing throughout the connection. In our own Conference the amount this year is $998.00. Where a Field Secretary is employed 75 per cent of the Children's Day collections remain in the Conference, but where it is not only 50 per cent.

The $50,000 endowment raised for the endowment of a Sunday School chair in Vanderbilt has been saved to the Church, as it was not completed until after the University was lost to the Church.

The Missionary offerings in our schools are increasing each year.

We note with delight and a sense of profit, the visit of Bro. A. L. Deitrich, our divisional field secretary.

Our Field Secretary, Bro. R. L. Duckworth, reports as follows:

Traveled by railroad.....	8,922
Traveled by buggy and auto.....	530
Total miles traveled .....	9,452
Letters written .....	1,210
Addresses made .....	117
Sunday School Institutes held.....	39
Sunday Schools Reached personally.....	162
County Sunday Schools reached.....	96
Sunday Schools reached twice or more.....	17
Books Sold, 552 value about .....	$ 300

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Board of Education, beg leave to submit the following report:

Galloway College.

We had before us the report of the President of Galloway College, and we are glad to say that the report shows evidences of substantial progress over former years. We note with pleasure the raising of the entrance requirements to fourteen units, and the lengthening of recitation periods, both in College and Academic Departments, from forty-five minutes to one hour. Furthermore, that whereas last year there were enrolled in College classes only forty-two regular students, this year there are seventy-two College students. We are gratified also at the strong, positive note sounded in the religious life of the College, both as evidenced by the interest shown by the teachers and pupils in Y. W. C. A. work and in Sunday School work. The putting into the curriculum of good, strong courses in Bible study last year, and the stated purpose to add to this next year courses in Sunday School Pedagogy, Church History and Missions, we most heartily commend as steps in the right direction.

Henderson-Brown College.

The report of Henderson-Brown College is encouraging and optimistic. Doctor Workman has made a fine showing, in view of the conditions prevailing when he took charge of the School and the short time that he has been in charge. The enrollment the first three months of this year is one hundred, seventy-three, as against one hundred, thirty-five for the entire last year. Likewise also, a comparison of receipts shows to date this year $10,829.95 as against $14,401.78 for the entire school year of 1914-15. We have no words but of commendation and confidence, for and in both the character of the work done in the school, and in the man whom the Trustees have put at the head of it. In Doctor Workman we feel that we have the right man in the right place.

Hendrix College.

The report of Hendrix College shows gratifying progress. Despite general conditions of depression, the enrollment to date this year is already nearly up to the total of the highest year in its history. Yearly, the need for additional buildings becomes more pressing. The report emphasizes the imperative duty of the Church in the education of her ministry and providing a means by which it may be done. Our Church is losing heavily already because she has not provided a loan fund for this purpose. We welcome the proposition of those in charge to establish at Hendrix a Chair of "Bible and Religious Education."

Recommendations.

GALLOWAY COLLEGE. 1. We give our hearty approval to the continuance of the campaign to raise an endowment for the College and to that end recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. W. C. Watson to succeed himself as Commissioner of Galloway College.

2. We recommend that Galloway College share equally with Hendrix and Henderson-Brown Colleges in all general assessments for education in our Conference.

3. We recommend the election of the following Trustees for Galloway College; the same having been nominated to succeed themselves in the President's report, to serve for the term indicated. Judge Frank Smith, five years.

T. D. Scott, five years.

P. C. Fletcher, to fill the unexpired term of J. M. Workman, resigned.

HENDRIX COLLEGE: 1. We heartily approve the suggestion contained in the report that Presiding Elders and Examining Committees insist that, wherever at all possible, young men take a College education before beginning the regular work.

2. Until such fund can be raised, we approve the suggestion in the report that individual Churches, Sunday Schools, Men's Bible Classes or other organizations take over the education of worthy young men wherever such is possible. No more paying investment for the Church could be made.

3. We recommend that this Conference make it the duty of the pastors, Sunday School superintendents, Epworth League and Missionary society presidents to observe "College Day" at least semi-annually, not for the purpose of a collection, but to familiarize our young people with the ideals of the Christian College and to stimulate a desire for a college education.

4. We recommend that Sunday Schools, Leagues and Missionary Societies of women and young people throughout the bounds of this Conference co-operate with like organizations of the North Arkansas Conference in the endowment of a Chair of Bible and Religious Education, same to count as part of the $400,000.00 it is sought to raise on the endowment for Hendrix College, such plans to be followed as the Trustees of the College may adopt to raise the funds.

5. We recommend the election of R. W. McKay to succeed himself on the Board of Trustees for a term of six years.

6. We approve the selection of Dr. James Thomas by the Board of Trustees to continue to lead the campaign for the $400,000 Endowment and recommend that the Bishop appoint him to that work.

7. Summer School: We heartily endorse the work of the Summer School for Ministers held at Hendrix College, and that it may be continued, we recommend an assessment of $500.00 for its support.

HENDERSON-BROWN COLLEGE: 1. Whereas it is desirable and necessary that the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, secure funds to the extent of Sixty Thousand ($60,000.00) Dollars wherewith to meet an indebtedness that is outstanding against said Conference, and against its buildings and other property at Henderson-Brown College at Arkadelphia,

Clark County, Arkansas, an incorporated educational institution owned and operated by said Conference;

THEREFORE, Be it resolved, that the Trustees of said Henderson-Brown College are hereby authorized, instructed and empowered by this, the aforesaid Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in regular meeting assembled in the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Monticello, Arkansas, to secure a loan of Sixty Thousand ($60,000.00) Dollars from such source as they may be able and think it expedient to secure it from, and to that end to make, execute and deliver, in their official capacity as such Trustees, a mortgage to secure the repayment of the money so borrowed on the real property of said Henderson-Brown College, to wit: The Main Administration Building, and Girls' Dormitory, Key Hall, and the Dining Room and Kitchen, and the tract of twenty-one and one half acres more or less, which is known as and used as the Campus of said Henderson-Brown College, and upon which said College is located in Arkadelphia, Clark County, Arkansas.

2. We recommend that the Trustees of Henderson-Brown College be allowed to go before our people to raise the amount needed to replace the loan mentioned in the foregoing resolution, and to pay the interest thereon, and that they be authorized to place an agent or agents in the field to collect the same.

3. We recommend that C. C. Henderson, Rev. J. A. Parker, Rev. W. M. Hayes be elected to succeed themselves, and that Rev. W. C. Davidson be elected to succeed Rev. J. C. Rhodes, deceased, and Mr. Leslie Goodloe be elected to succeed Mr. Walter W. Brown, resigned, on the Board of Trustees.

In addition to all the foregoing, we recommend an assessment of $1,500.00 for each of our three Colleges.

Stuttgart Training School.

We had before us report of Hon. Robt. R. Holt, referee in the matter of Stuttgart Training School, Stuttgart, Arkansas, setting forth the fact that said property had been sold and proceeds applied as directed by this Conference. We approve the report.

We also had before us the report of our General Secretary of Education, which we have carefully gone over. In pursuance of the recommendation contained therein, we recommend the following: 1. That all of our Presiding Elders and Pastors are hereby asked, in prorating monies collected on Conference assessments, to do so on a percentage basis that there may be no discrimination in favor of one cause as against another.

2. We recommend that our Conference Secretary of Education, W. C. Davidson, be named as delegate from this Conference to the Annual Meeting of the General Conference Board of Education, his expenses to be provided for out of the incidental fund of this Board.

3. We recommend that this Annual Conference request of the General Board of Education that Galloway College and Henderson-Brown College be given such classification as they may be entitled to at the time of its next annual session, April, 1916.

4. We recommend that this Conference call upon the public school authorities of the State to give academic recognition for academic work done in Bible study outside of school hours, and that said public school authorities be asked to make a statement of the conditions under which such recognition may be given.

5. We recommend the observance of Thursday before the fourth Sunday in February as a day of prayer for our Colleges, as recommended by the Council of Church Boards of Education and the General Conference Board of Education of our own Church.

We also had before us a report from the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training, to which careful consideration was given. We hereby express our hearty appreciation of the good work the Department is doing in the education of our young preachers. We recommend:

1. That it be declared the sense of this Conference that undergraduates be required either to take the whole course with the Correspondence School, or to take half the course with the Correspondence School, and the other half in the Summer School at Hendrix College.

2. That this Conference memorialize, and same is hereby done, the General Conference Board of Education that when only half the course is taken with the Correspondence School, it being understood that only this much of the course is to be so taken, that the fee be made $5.00 instead of $10.00 as at present.

Your Board recommend the following changes in the Conference Board of Education: Rev. F. N. Brewer in place of Samuel M. Sampson, and S. R. Twitty in place of S. T. Baugh.

We recommend the following appointments: Student in Hendrix College, W. C. Martin; Students in Emory University, J. A. Sage Jr., P. Q. Rorie; Professor in Hendrix College, C. J. Greene; President Henderson-Brown College, Dr. J. M. Workman.

Southern Methodist University.

All the papers concerning Southern Methodist University referred to us have been given prayerful and careful consideration, and we recommend the following for your adoption:

First. That we hereby commend the action of the Educational Commission in selecting Southern Methodist University as the connectional institution for the territory west of the Mississippi River.

Second. That we greatly rejoice in the splendid beginning which the University has made and believe profoundly in the success of its future; and we do hereby pledge to the Commission our sincere and hearty support of the University as a Connectional Institution.

Third. That we gladly direct to Southern Methodist University all genuine university patronage within our bounds; and specially do we direct all our young ministers to pursue their distinctively theological studies at Southern Methodist University, and all our undergraduates, and others, to take their work in the Correspondence School at the University as soon as facilities for doing so have been provided.

The Educational Commission.

We have examined the report of the Educational Commission referred to us and the Conference heard with pleasure an account of the work of the Commission during the past year as presented by Dr. A. J. Lamar, a member of the Commission. We recommend the adoption of the following:

First. That we desire to express our appreciation of the work of the Educational Commission as made known to us in the report of the Commission sent us by the Chairman, Bishop W. A. Candler. We share in the feeling of responsibility, voiced in that report, which results from the great world situation as it affects the educational work of the Colleges and Universities of Europe and America, and would pledge ourselves and our people to the loyal effort to discharge the obligations which are imposed upon us, and shall be increasingly ours in the coming years.

Second. That we rejoice in the great success of the Commission as made known to us by Dr. A. J. Lamar, in securing funds with which to launch our two great educational enterprises at Dallas and at Atlanta.

Third. That we note with satisfaction and approval the information conveyed to us in the report of the Commission; namely, that the Charter of Emory University is such that that "institution has been placed perfectly in the ownership and control of the Church" and that while "the Charter of Southern Methodist University has not been brought to its final form, the Church may be well assured that this institution will be owned and controlled by the Church in perpetuity."

Fourth. That with respect to the recommendation to adopt "the preamble and resolution of a paper presented to the Conference" by representatives of the Commission, and to elect a trustee we find ourselves confronted by certain difficulties as follows:

1st. The adoption of the resolution referred to involves the adoption of a charter.

2nd. We are informed that the charter is in process of making. Its ultimate form may be quite different from that presented to us.

3rd. While no copy of the proposed charter was left with the Conference nor with the Board of Education, upon the examination of an unofficial copy, certain important questions were raised as to the relations which would be established between this Conference and Southern Methodist University by adopting the charter and electing a trustee.

4th. We sought to secure the services of both Dr. C. S. Wright, vice president of the University, and of Dr. A. J. Lamar, to make clear to us the meaning of certain provisions of the Charter, but were not able to do so.

5th. We were informed that it is not within the power of this Conference to either hinder or further the work of the Commission in making the University connectional and placing the ownership and control of it in the General Conference, that the Commission and the participating Conferences are clothed with all authority to accomplish these results.

6th. Confronted by the situation herein mentioned, we deem it unadvisable, at this time, to take any action which might be construed as establishing a definite Conference relation between this Conference and Southern Methodist University.

Following are the assessments for the ensuing year:

General Conference .....	$2,185.00
Hendrix College .....	1,500.00

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We your Committee on Conference Journals, beg leave to submit the following report:

Arkadelphia District:—The Journal is in good condition. One place where a line was drawn through a few words, and left crossed out. Very neat Journal.

Camden District:—Capital letters too profusely used. The word "reported" is used instead of "announced" by the Committee on Public Worship in announcing the appointments.

Little Rock District:—This Journal is well kept with the exception that some names and words have been crossed out by ink, and others were written with pencil and erased and rewritten with ink.

Monticello District:—The number of the Conference should have been written out rather than to have used the number "45." It was unnecessary to write the number of the Conference at the top of each page of the minutes. We would recommend the free use of a good English Dictionary and English Grammar, and look more carefully to the neatness of the work.

Pine Bluff District:—This Journal is in a very neat condition. One insertion between the lines which detracts somewhat from its neatness.

Prescott District:—This Journal is neatly and accurately kept and is worthy of being used as a model.

Texarkana District:—There is a lack of marginal notes. Neat and correct in every other way.

Respectfully submitted,

W. T. MENARD,
A. O. GRAYDON,
O. H. KEADLE,
L. E. N. HUNDLEY,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is a source of gratification that within the past year great advancement has been made in the extension of prohibition. More than two-thirds of the counties and more than three-fourths of the cities and towns of this nation are under prohibition. Nineteen (19) of the forty-eight (48) states have adopted statewide prohibition, while others have the matter before them. More than sixty million of our people live under prohibition and eighty (80) per cent of the area of the nation will be dry January 1.

We note with satisfaction the rapidly changing tone of the public press on this question, and the fact that hundreds of the large daily newspapers now bar liquor advertisements and that leading magazines and papers are giving space to the consideration of prohibition. We are pleased with the strong attitude which medical science is taking for the propagation of the scientific truth regarding alcohol; and the determined opposition to the traffic by great manufacturing enterprises and business concerns. With the disappearance of intoxicants from the United States Pharmacopea, the last stronghold of the liquor traffic is gone. A most insidious form of the drink evil which appealed to men and women has been in its use as a medicine, people who would despise a drunkard would not hesitate to use medicine composed largely of alcohol, but now it is excluded from the pharmacopea as a medicine or a food, so that intoxicants are to be exposed to the open, stripped of their disguise and labeled "poison."

We are gratified that a majority of the members of the House of Representatives of the last Congress voted in favor of the submission to the state of a prohibitory amendment to the Constitution of the United States. While the measure did not secure the necessary majority, yet one hundred and ninety-seven (197) voted for it as against one hundred and eighty-nine (189) opposed to it.

In our own state we rejoice to know that on the first day of January, 1916, statutory state-wide prohibition will take effect and we will have the satisfaction of having outlawed the traffic.

Among the influences that brought this happy result, we would name the determined and persistent church papers, and a courageous ministry. These have lent their influence to the cause and heartily supported the Anti-Saloon League in its successful work. To the Anti-Saloon League is due the credit of its President and Superintendent drafting the Going Bill which hastened state-wide prohibition. It is also entitled to the credit of one of its officers preparing the bill for state-wide prohibition and introducing it in the State Senate. The Anti-Saloon League, the past year, has had several men in the field organizing local Leagues, and guarding as far as possible against the candidacy of Anti-prohibitionists for certain officers. It has recently organized a Law Enforcement Department and placed Mr. Edgar Graham, of Helena, in charge with a view to very active work on detective and law enforcement lines.

We recommend the adoption of the following:

"Resolved, First, that we favor the submission of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing for National Prohibition.

"Second, That we thank the Senators and Representatives from Arkansas in the National Legislature for voting unanimously for the submission of the amendment.

"Third, That we endorse the great work that the Anti-Saloon League has done in its National and State organizations and we pledge it our sympathy and support.

"Fourth. That B. A. Few, George Thornburgh, J. H. Glass, M. N. Waldrip and A. C. Millar be the representatives of this Conference as Trustees of the Arkansas Department of the Anti-Saloon League of America."

With our eyes fixed on the goal of National prohibition, having hope in an enlightened public conscience, resting our faith on the God of truth, we shall move forward in harmonious unity in the name of science, economics, statesmanship, morality and human justice to the destruction of the liquor traffic, the monster of modern civilization.

REPORT OF WESTERN METHODIST COMMISSION.

Report No. 1.

To the Little Rock Conference Assembled at Monticello, Arkansas,
December 1st.

Dear Brethren:

Your Commission appointed by the last Annual Conference begs leave to submit its report as follows:

1st. This Commission recommends to the North Arkansas and the Little Rock Conferences that the conditional contract, made by the Commission with the owners of the Western Methodist, be made absolute; said contract being in substance as follows:

That the North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences buy the Western Methodist for the Church, assuming therefor certain indebtedness to be named, to the amount of eight thousand dollars ($8,000), taking over for the Church everything pertaining to the paper as well as all stock owned by Dr. A. C. Millar, W. B. Hays, Frank Barrett and L. F. Blankenship in the capital stock company. Exhibit A.

2nd. That this Commission be continued with new members or the same members re-elected by the Conferences.

3rd. That the Commission be authorized to conclude the trade with all its details and all matters pertaining thereto directly and indirectly.

4th. That the Commission be authorized to select the Editor. If he be a member of either the North Arkansas Conference or the Little Rock Conference, his election shall be approved by the conference to which he belongs and the presiding bishop.

5th. That the Commission shall have authority to fill any vacancy in the editorship during the interim of the conferences.

6th. The Commission shall be authorized upon a vote of two thirds of the members thereof to remove the Editor, if, in their judgment, there is sufficient cause; and the Commission may fill the vacancy thereby created until the regular time of the election of an Editor.

7th. The Commission shall be authorized to employ a Business Manager whenever in their judgment it shall become necessary, and they shall be authorized to discharge any such Manager for any cause which may appear to them sufficient.

8th. The North Arkansas and the Little Rock Conferences each shall assume one-half of the eight thousand dollar indebtedness, which shall be paid in two years with a reasonable rate of interest. Two thousand dollars a year for two years shall be assessed upon the charges of each conference for the payment of said debt to be apportioned by the General Board upon the basis of the Foreign Missionary Assessment, which shall be preferred money.

9th. The Commission shall have general control and management of the paper without embarrassing the Editor and Manager in the detail work of their departments.

10th. That Dr. A. C. Millar be elected Editor for the ensuing year, provided the conferences enter into this agreement.

11th. That as soon as it can be legally done, the name of the Western Methodist be changed to the Arkansas Methodist.

Signed F. S. H. JOHNSTON, President.

J. M. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Report No. II.

Your Commission for the Western Methodist further recommends that Sunday, January 16th, 1916, being the third Sunday in January, be set apart as Western Methodist Day. That a lively campaign be carried on by our pastors and that a collection be taken on this day, which collection shall be applied to the assessment for the Western Methodist, and that so soon as the money is in hand that it be forwarded to the proper authority and turned as speedily as possible into the hands of the paper for relieving its obligations.

Signed F. S. H. JOHNSTON, President.
J. M. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Your Committee respectfully recommends that section eight of the report of the Western Methodist Commission read as follows: Section Eight. That James Thomas be appointed Commissioner for this Conference to raise the necessary amount to meet our part of the obligation, and expenses of collecting the same, and act as our treasurer for this fund; That we authorize Brother Thomas to adopt his own plan for raising the money; That we as preachers and laymen promise to cooperate heartily with him, and we hereby call upon the whole membership of our Church in the Little Rock Conference to contribute liberally to this fund.

W. P. WHALEY,
GEO. THORNBURGH.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRINTING MINUTES.

Your Committee appointed to prepare and publish the Conference Minutes and to provide for the expenses thereof, respectfully reports as follows:

We estimated the amount necessary for the preparation and publication of the Minutes of 1914 to be Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and we apportioned the assessment therefor against the several Boards as follows:

Board of Missions.....	$200.00
Joint Board .....	200.00
Church Extension .....	100.00
Board of Education.....	100.00
Total .....	$500.00

These apportionments were all met except that against the Board of Education. By some misunderstanding that Board, in the disposition of its funds, did not apportion anything for the Minutes, and having only $18.00 left, that was all it paid on the Minute Assessment.

Galloway, Hendrix and Henderson-Brown Colleges each paid $10.00 for advertising space in the Minutes, making total amount received, $448.00.

The actual expenses were:

Stenographers .....	$ 31.15
Expenses of Editor and Committee.....	22.35
Printing 3,000 Minutes.....	250.00
Proof Reading .....	10.00
Postage on Minutes.....	17.16
Paid to Mrs. Riffin for old journals.....	10.00
Paid for new journal.....	5.46

Total .....$346.12

Leaving a balance of $101.88.

As the Missionary Board had paid $200.00 which was twice as much as any other Board, we returned to that Board, $90.00, upon the assurance of Brother Thomas, Treasurer of the Board, that if this was not approved by the Annual Conference of 1915, he would return the $90.00 to this Committee. That left a net balance in the hands of the Committee of $11.88.

We estimate the amount necessary for the preparation and publication of the Minutes of this session at $400.00 and the amount is assessed against the several boards as follows:

Board of Missions.....	$100.00
Joint Board .....	100.00
Board of Education.....	100.00
Church Extension Board.....	100.00

We recommend that the return of the Ninety Dollars to the Board of Missions be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, it seems impossible under the present arrangement to get the treasurer's report to agree with the statistical report;

Be it resolved, that the Secretary of this Conference appoint enough clerical help for the Treasurer next year to make the Pastor's report balance with the cash and the receipts in hand, before the Treasurer receives the same.

L. C. BEASLEY,
STONEWALL ANDERSON,
S. T. BAUGH.

---

Resolved: That the thanks of the Conference be tendered to the Committee of the Quarterly Conference of Monticello Station for providing adding machine, typewriters and other conveniences for the accommodation of the members of the Conference. And also to Mrs. W. B. Massey and Miss Ruby Harper for faithful service as stenographers.

GEO. THORNBURGH.

Resolved: That the thanks of the Conference be, and they are hereby tendered to the various railroads, for reduced rates to the Conference;

Resolved: That our thanks are hereby tendered to the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern Railway Company and the Rock Island Railway Company for special favors in extra cars, and in holding the train for our accommodation; and we express our appreciation of the kindly services of Mr. R. G. Raoul, Agent at Monticello, for securing for us these accommodations.

GEO. THORNBURGH.

---

We desire to express our appreciation of Gospel Talks, by Bishop Morrison, as published by the Western Methodist during the year, and it is the sense of this Conference that this literature should be put into a permanent form and thus preserved to the church.

W. P. WHALEY.

MEMOIRS

REV. EDGAR GARDNER SEAY.

Edgar Gardner Seay was born November 4, 1882, on the old Seay homestead, six miles north of Warren, in Bradley county, Ark. His grandfather, Charley Seay, a local Methodist preacher, came from Lebanon, Tenn., in pioneer days and settled the place. For many years Rev. Charley Seay was known to everybody in all that section as "Uncle Charley." He was a rugged, strong, true, noble, commanding character—a diamond in the rough, but of the first water.

The Seay home was religious after the strictest Methodist standard from the time the axe was laid at the root of the trees. The family was a church, the rude log house was a temple, and the encircling family altar made holy the fires in the wide chimney. Uncle Charley had a good library, consisting mainly of the Bible, a Commentary, a Discipline, a hymn book and other writings of the Methodist fathers. His children and grandchildren continued the use and reverence of these books. There were no enervating luxuries, and Uncle Charley would not have tolerated them even if he could have afforded them.

So positive and wholesome was the religious atmosphere of the home that the child Edgar Gardner, like the other seven children, grew up with a becoming wonder and reverence for the spiritual. When 14 years old he definitely and openly gave himself to God and joined the Methodist Church at Wheeler Springs, on the New Edinburg Circuit.

Only a few years later, his father, W. A. Seay, died, and the mother moved to Warren with the eight children to secure for them better school advantages and more remunerative employment at the mills. Edgar Gardner, being one of the older boys, got only a little of the school, but a good deal of the work. However, he had a fine mind and was a diligent reader of good books, so his lack of schooling was not very apparent. He delighted in the better church privileges in Warren, and he was soon one of the most active and enthusiastic attendants at prayer meeting, the Sunday school and the Epworth League. The League especially drew him into public exercise, and gradually developed his secret feeling of a call to preach. He was licensed to preach July 2, 1904, but continued to work at the mills or other employment, with occasional periods in school. Being a delegate to the Epworth League Conference, which met in April, 1907, at Fordyce, he met there Miss Lula Brown, who was a delegate from DeQueen. This acquaintance led to an engagement in the latter part of the year, and to marriage October 29, 1908. Brother Seay was at the time supplying the Dierks Circuit. At the meeting of the Little Rock Conference that year in Little Rock, Rev. Edgar Gardner Seay was admitted on trial and ordained a local deacon by Bishop Hendrix. At that conference and the next he was assigned to the Vandervoort Circuit, and he reported 85 additions to the church on profession of faith for the two years. In 1910 and 1911 he was assigned to Foreman, and he reported 63 additions on profession of faith for those two years. Though short, his was a fruitful ministry. He was admitted into full connection in 1911 at the meeting of the Conference in Fordyce. At the Conference of 1912 he was appointed to College Hill in Texarkana, but his health had already failed at Foreman. Never very robust physically, he was not himself again after being crushed under the wheels of his buggy in Foreman in 1912. At the Conference in Hot Springs he was suffering too much to attend the sessions. After moving to Texarkana and entering upon his pastorate at College Hill, he grew worse and submitted to an operation for appendicitis. Recovering rapidly from this, he filled his pulpit only three or four Sundays before he was stricken down with infantile paralysis, then so prevalent in that community. Through weeks there was no hope of his recovery. When he did begin to improve it was so slowly that it was seen he could not continue in his pastorate. He gave up his work, went back to the old home near Warren, and tried to regain his health amid the simple rustic scenes of his childhood. He was able to attend the Conference that fall in Pine Bluff, but was superannuated because he was not strong enough to take work. He returned to his home with a new realization of the brotherhood of Methodist preachers, brought about by many brotherly considerations. He took back many little cash tokens and told his wife they were "love gifts." He continued feeble through 1914, but pursued his conference studies, went to the Conference at Little Rock, passed his examination and was ordained elder by Bishop Morrison. He was happy because he could do that, and carried his parchment home as a pleasant surprise for his wife. He had, indeed, finished his course; for soon after returning to his home he took la grippe and pneumonia, which rapidly wore out his body, already so frail. He passed from us at 8 o'clock a. m., Friday, December 18, 1914, and the next day his body was buried from the Methodist Church in DeQueen, where he had made his home for the past few months.

He was especially happy in his marriage and home life. To him marriage was a holy bond. Two spirits were never more perfectly matched. Three children blessed their home, two girls and a boy. Little Margaret is not, for God took her; but Mary and Edgar Jr., remain the care and comfort of the widowed mother.

Rev. Edgar Gardner Seay had none of the ruggedness and none of the eccentricities of his grandfather, but from his mother inherited a delicate, genial, social nature. He had a quick mind and a pure heart. He was easy, graceful and tactful. There was no selfishness in him. His life was frank and above suspicion. From 1882 to 1914 is not a long sweep of time, but was time enough for this boy of meager opportunities to lay hold on eternal life, win his crown, deck it with many stars and finish an earthly course with honor and in peace.—W. P. Whaley.

TRIBUTE TO REV. J. C RHODES.

James Clinton Rhodes was born in Lumberton, Robinson County, North Carolina, March 3, 1849. His father, Dr. R. C. Rhodes, brought his family to Arkansas in 1850 and settled near Sheridan, Grant County, then in Saline County. Here he grew to manhood; was converted at the age of ten at Sulphur Springs Camp Ground, and joined the M. E. Church, South. This was in 1859. Within two years the war between the states began, with all its disorganizing and demoralizing effects. Through the four years of war and the more baleful years following, known as the "days of reconstruction," his Christian integrity survived, and in 1871 he was licensed to preach. In 1873 he was admitted on trial in the Little Rock Conference and appointed as junior preacher on the ElDorado Circuit, with D. H. Linebaugh. During the year he was changed and put in charge of the Lewisville Circuit.

In the thirteenth year of his itinerancy, while stationed at Magnolia, his health gave way, and for a year and a half he was superannuated. After becoming effective again, he traveled sixteen years without a break, when at his own request in 1903 he was superannuated, and remained so till his death, which occurred at the home of his son, Robert, in Arkadelphia, Ark., May 13, 1915. He had been a preacher 44 years, 42 years a member of the Little Rock Conference. During that time he received 30 appointments at the hands of the Church, ranging from the poorest, hardest circuit, to several of our good stations.

He was happily married November 16, 1881, to Miss Belle Scott of near Benton, Ark., who preceded him in death four and one-half years. To them three sons were born, all of whom grew to manhood and are educated Christian men, members of the Little Rock Conference, two are pastors in the Conference; Robert, the youngest, is a professor in the University of California.

Brother Rhodes never attended school as much as three months. His father was a man of means, owning a large country establishment, with over a hundred slaves, but in those early days there were very few schools for rich or poor. However, in his father's home of culture, refinement and plenty, there were advantages that made up somewhat for the lack of schools. One of his earliest recollections was when his parents had him baptized, along with several negro children, all seated on a long bench in the hall. Dr. A. R. Winfield baptized him. Dr. A. Hunter was present, laid his hands upon him, and blessed him. This goes to show that his parents were intelligently religious, and that their place was a resort for the Methodist preachers. Such a home as this will give any boy a good start, even if he never sees the inside of a school room. He was a sickly boy, which debarred him largely from out door activities. His mother taught him the rudiments of knowledge; a fine library and good literature were at hand, to which his mind readily turned. He was sixteen years old when the war closed. With his father's property gone, and the whole country in ruins, there was no chance to go off to school. But he was determined to have an education. Fastening his book to his plow-stock, he read as he could, while he ploughed; he studied at night by a pine-knot fire. By this hard discipline he became an educated man, better so than many who go through college. His command of English was marvelous, and his scope of knowledge broad.

As a preacher he ranked high. He was fervent, forceful in utterance and sound in thought. His sermons were as compact and clear as a well written book, yet they were not dry. He knew how to hold meetings, instruct mourners, and lead folks to Christ. His converts are found all over the Conference, some of them are preachers. He was a strong opposer of all public evils and we owe much to him for the prohibition sentiment of our state.

He was a member of the Board of Trustees for Henderson-Brown College from its beginning to his death. In the marvelous development of our educational interest during the past thirty years, he rendered valuable service. His home life was beautiful and unselfish. He was a devoted husband, a wise and loving father, a loyal friend, genial and attractive in the social circle. His speech was always chaste and correct. His oldest son said: "I never heard him speak a word or tell a story that could not be repeated with perfect propriety before my mother." He was a Christian gentleman. His health was always delicate and uncertain, which kept him from positions that he was otherwise eminently qualified to fill. But his life was a success. He gave his boys their college and university degrees, kept out of debt, and had a comfortable home to go to when superannuated. Diligent and faithful, enduring hardness as a good soldier of the cross, a patriotic citizen, a loyal servant of the Church, he no doubt received the welcome plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord.—T. D. Scott.

REV. JOSEPH Z. BURLESON.

Rev. Joseph Z. Burleson was born December 9, 1862, in Ouachita County, Ark. His father was a native of Alabama, and came to this state when a young man. He served in the Confederate army, and died during the war, at DeValls Bluff. His mother, Jane Wilson Hayes, was born in Ouachita county and lived there until her death in 1910.

Joseph Z. was the youngest child in a family of four boys and two girls, and bore his father's given name. His widowed mother, in that hard period immediately following the Civil War, was not able to educate the children highly, and this youngest son always felt embarrassed because of his limited schooling. His lack in this respect was more apparent to himself than to others, for he read widely and used good English.

At the age of sixteen he was converted under the preaching of Rev. John Nesbit, and joined the Methodist Protestant Church at New Salem, where his mother was a member until her death. He at once became an active Christian. Just what year the Methodist Protestant Church licensed him to preach, we have not been able to find; but in 1891 he assisted the writer in a meeting on the Magnolia Circuit. He was serving a Methodist Protestant Circuit in that country, and the writer was supplying his first work in the Little Rock Conference. In the fall of 1891 or 1892, he was received into the Methodist Protestant Conference; and he served charges in that church until the fall of 1896, when he was received as an elder into the Little Rock Conference.

He was on the Hampton Circuit in 1897; the Ouachita Circuit in 1898; the Eldorado Circuit in 1899, 1900 and 1901; the Atlanta Circuit in 1902, 1903 and 1904. At the Conference of 1904 he was granted a location; but he served as supply on the Magnolia Circuit in 1906, 1907 and 1908. and on the Camden Circuit in 1909. At the Conference of 1909 he was re-admitted and returned to the Camden Circuit. In the fall of 1910 he transferred to the White River Conference; but he remained there only one year and was transferred back to the Little Rock Conference. He was appointed in the fall of 1911 to Okolona, where he remained until his death, August 5, 1915.

His ministry was fruitful. In his eighteen years service in the Little Rock Conference, he received into the church on profession of faith, 328 members. He never lost in evangelical power. His ministry was almost uniformly fruitful. In fact, in his last report to this Conference, made in 1914, he reported seventy-five members received on profession of faith, which was the best report he ever made.

The last sermon he preached was at Chidester, his old home community, where he went to help in revival services. The text of that last sermon was, "Prepare to Meet Thy God." After preaching with great power for forty or fifty minutes, he raised his hand and said: "One hour ago, the responsibility was on me. Now I have shifted it. It is on you. What will you do with it? I am going to have to answer for this sermon at the judgment. I am ready to go. How many will meet me up there?"

He was not well during that meeting, but nobody suspected that he was so soon to leave us. He lived only a few days after returning to Okolona. He was in his fourth year in this charge, where his successful ministry and pure living had won for him a host of friends. It is said that about fifteen hundred people attended the funeral, which was conducted by his presiding elder, assisted by a number of other preachers.

Brother Burleson was a good man. He had implicit faith in Jesus Christ and the gospel. He could never understand why so many hesitated to believe and follow Christ. He worried about the last. Because so many resisted this message he sometimes got discouraged. He sometimes felt like quitting the ministry because he was not more successful. He wanted everybody saved. But he loved to preach, and he was very far above the average preacher.

Brother Burleson was twice married. His first marriage was in 1886 to Miss Fannie Holleman, and his second in 1900, to Miss Augusta Jameson. There are nine children, five boys and four girls. Besides these he leaves three brothers and a sister. These all had the utmost confidence in the Christian life of our sainted brother. He was held in the most affectionate esteem by his brethren in the Little Rock Conference, as well as by a multitude to whom he ministered in spiritual things during a period of twenty-five years. He was our brother and a very efficient fellow-laborer. May the Lord establish the work of his hands, and keep those who were as dear to our brother as was his own life.—W. P. Whaley.

MRS. J. S. M. DAVIES.

Mrs. J. S. M. Davies, wife of Rev. Richard P. Davies, was born in Streetsville, Ontario, Canada, in 1835. Her father moved his family to Glanford, while she was an infant, where she grew to womanhood. She was converted at the age of sixteen, joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and lived a faithful Christian life.

She was married to R. P. Davies in 1854, who, shortly afterward, became a Wesleyan Methodist Preacher. They moved to Moorehead Parish, La., in 1855, where they united with the M. E. Church, South. Brother Davies was licensed to preach in our Church in 1858. In 1860 he moved to Arkansas, settled in the town of Lewisville, and for three years he was very useful as a local preacher. In 1863 he was received on trial in the Little Rock Conference and for nearly eight years he was a useful and acceptable itinerant, beloved by all. He was a man of ability and gave promise of a long and useful life, but on Feb. 24th, 1871, in the prime of life, he was murdered by Henry Boyd of Lafayette County. They had had some little misunderstanding, but Brother Davies thought it was all settled in a Christian spirit, and after dining with Boyd, started home. Boyd followed him out and without any warning, shot him to death.

Sister Davies thus bereaved was compelled to face the future with six small children. She had little of this world's goods, but her faith was in God, and in the strength of this faith she set herself to the task, with noble purpose and Christian hopefulness. She felt she had a great work before her and a glorious opportunity in training her children for Christ. But one by one death claimed them, and in the space of nine years she was left alone—her six children buried by the father in the Lewisville cemetery. One had died in infancy and was buried elsewhere.

Bereaved and broken and saddened, she turned away from the scenes of tragedy and death, back to her native land, and lived her last days with her kindred in Canada. Mr. Wesley Evans, her brother, testified to the sweetness of her Christian life in these last years, teaching in the Sunday school and working as she could, endeavoring to lead others to the Saviour. He said when she passed away, "there went out a light that will be greatly missed." Her release came April 30th, 1915.—T. D. Scott.

A TRIBUTE TO ROSE ANNABEL McCLINTOCK.

Of all the good women of this world, none are more deserving than the wives of Methodist preachers. Having to move from place to place, with meager opportunities to fit up the home, and often left to bear its burdens alone, no class of women live under more trying conditions, accomplish more good, and yet have fewer of the real comforts of life than these unselfish women of the Methodist itineracy. To this noble band of Christian women belonged Rose Annabel McClintock.

She was born in Tishomingo county, Miss., May 20, 1860. She was a Brown—good Methodist stock. While in her infancy, war clouds having o'ercast the Southern skies, her parents sold their home in Mississippi and moved to Southern Tennessee, locating near Lexington, to be with relatives, the Middletons, Faggs, Hannahs, and Englands, prominent Methodist families who lived in that section. Here she grew to womanhood under fairly good educational advantages. She was converted while in her youth and united with the Methodist church, in which she was to spend her life as the wife of a Methodist preacher. She was a Methodist by inheritance, by training, and by her own enlightened and free choice. She was married January 2, 1876, to Rev. R. A. McClintock, a local Methodist preacher, then engaged in teaching school. Both went to school after their marriage. About two years after their marriage they moved to Ripley county, Mo., where he taught school for two years. She was delighted when, in September, 1880, he joined the St. Louis Conference. Their first work was Bloomfield Circuit. In order that she might become more thoroughly identified with her husband's work, she pursued his course of study with him. She also kept herself posted in the current literature of the church, and became very active in social, Sunday school, and revival work. She thus became a strong support to her husband in the work of the ministry.

Among other charges served by them in Missouri were Poplar Bluff and DeSoto Stations. From the last mentioned charge they transferred in 1895 to the Little Rock Conference. Of the twenty years she spent with her husband in this conference, six years were spent in the Little Rock and Pine Bluff districts, and fourteen years in the Monticello District. Their first charge in this Conference was Portland and Parkdale, and their last and present charge, Wilmar Station. In all of this round of pastoral charges she shared with her husband his labors, his cares, his sorrows, his victories, and his joys; in it all she was his true and faithful helpmeet.

Sister McClintock was the mother of six children, four of whom preceded her to that goodly land beyond. The bodies of these departed loved ones lie buried in different places—along the lengthened route above outlined, wherever in the Master's vineyard the parents chanced to be laboring when the call came. The two surviving daughters are Mrs. A. J. Snodgrass, of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Stuart E. Nunn, of Monticello, Ark. Her devotion to the home was no less than it was to her husband's work. This showed itself in the refinement of her children and in the good impression made upon her neighbors. One who lived near her said: "She was one of the best women I ever knew." It is in the home that we find the surest test of character.

In February of this year her health gave way, and she slowly but steadily declined till Friday, April 30, 1915, when she fell "asleep in Jesus." She enjoyed life, she enjoyed her husband's work, and she would have gladly lived had it been her Master's will; yet she had absolutely no fear of death, and was in every way ready when the summons came. Her husband and their two daughters were at her bedside when she departed. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Wilmar, and were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. R. W. McKay, her former presiding elder. The body was conveyed to Monticello, nine miles from Wilmar, and there in Oakland Cemetery was laid to rest on Saturday evening, as the sun was going down. But as the sun sets only to rise again, so will she in the morning of the resurrection rise to everlasting life: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."—W. C. Davidson.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. LAURA D. HAWLEY.

Mrs. Laura Dollarhide Hawley, widow of the Rev. L. B. Hawley and stepmother of the Rev. James M. Hawley, both of whom were honored members of the Little Rock Conference, passed to her heavenly home from the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryant, in Eldorado, Arkansas, February 6, 1915.

She was the daughter of Judge J. S. and Mrs. Martha King Dollarhide, and was born in Little River county, Arkansas, May 30, 1854.

In common with many of the most distinguished sons and daughters of Arkansas, she was educated at the old Mineral Springs Academy under the Rev. T. W. Hays.

For some years after her graduation she was engaged in teaching in which profession she was notably successful.

She was married to Rev. L. B. Hawley, at Richmond, Arkansas, November the 21st, 1878. Five children were born to this union. Minnie, the eldest, died in early life. The remaining four, Mrs. J. W. Bryant, Mrs. Curtis Stout, George and Louis, together with one stepson, Frank, are still living. One other stepson, Thomas, and his brother, James, referred to above, preceded her to the good world some years ago.

After her marriage she devoted all the powers of her life to the care of her home and the work of her church. She was gifted in both music and painting and was easily conversant with much of the world's best literature. The paths leading to the highest places in the best social and literary circles of any community lay open before her but she had dedicated her life to more important spheres of service. Her home and her church afforded an ample field for the exercise of all her powers and the use of all her time. On these altars she poured out the richest treasures of her mind and heart. She was especially devoted to the work of the Sunday school and of the Woman's Missionary Society and the results of her work in these departments of the church still abides in many of the charges where she lived and laboured.

She was a loyal itinerant and bravely and cheerfully accepted the results of the annual revolutions of the itinerant wheel. For twenty-seven years she shared the joys and sorrows of an itinerant preacher's life, maintaining at all times her quiet cheerfulness of spirit; her abiding faith in God and her constant devotion to the church.

Her Christian character was a living testimonial to the reality and power of our holy religion. She was always exceedingly modest in her professions of religious experience but her gentleness, her patience, her charity of spirit, her loyalty to Christ and her unsullied purity of life were known by all with whom she was associated. She had learned the rare and blessed secret of prevailing prayer and out of the depths of some very gracious experiences she could say with the Psalmist: "He hath heard my voice and my supplication."

During the last twenty years of her life she was afflicted with increasing deafness. This incapacitated her for active church work but did not keep her from her accustomed place in the sanctuary. She loved the courts of the Lord's House, and though she could not hear the words of either sermon or service, was a regular attendant as long as her failing health would allow.

For several years before her death she was a great sufferer from chronic rheumatism. She bore this affliction with Christian fortitude and patiently waited for her release. For more than forty-eight hours before her spirit took its departure from the body she was wholly unconscious. During these last hours she appeared as one to whom the beauty and glory of the eternal home had already been revealed. The lines of suffering and sorrow faded from her face and were followed by a smile of holy joy and peace. Her friends came and looked upon her face and said, "How beautiful." Thus she passed from earth to heaven with the light of the eternal morning reflected from her countenance.

Her body rests beside the body of her sainted husband in the "Silent City of the Dead" in ElDorado. Her name will no longer appear on our Conference "Roll of Honor," but the memory of her beautiful life will be fresh and sweet in many hearts through the coming years.—J. A. Sage.
